Dear Senior Games Participant:

In 2018, Neuse River Senior Games & SilverArts (NRSRG) is celebrating its 33rd year promoting health, fun, fitness and friendship for Seniors 50 years old and better. As your Local Coordinator, I hope that you will join us this year.

The Steering Committee has been at work since June 2017 planning this event for you. Please take the time to read the enclosed information carefully. There are changes and deadlines that are very important. Other changes and opportunities that we are excited about are:

- Pickleball continues to grow in participation and joins Corn Hole & Bocce as popular events. Pickleball will be held this year on Monday and Tuesday at West New Bern Recreation Center.
- Swimming and Racquetball will be held on a Saturday this year, May 5th.
- Tennis will be held at the Taberna Country Club (New Location).
Those interested in Team Softball or Basketball, please call 252-636-6606 for information.
- Photography is now divided into 2 groups: film and digital.
- China Painting, Tatting/Needle Lace and Hooked Rugs are no longer State events.
- Performing Arts will be held the morning of Wednesday, April 18th at West New Bern Recreation Center. Come see our talented performers (or compete yourself!) for the opportunity to represent NRSRG at the State Games Showcase in Raleigh.

The Celebration of Games Opening Ceremony will be held at 11:30AM on Wednesday, April 18th at West New Bern Recreation Center. Please mark your form to indicate your attendance at the Celebration of Games Opening Ceremony and the luncheon immediately following.

If you will be participating in or observing an outdoor event, please bring sunscreen, chairs, etc. to the event for your comfort. Your Steering Committee asks that each of you be an ambassador for our Games. What a great time to invite friends to join us for fitness, fun and fellowship during the events!

For additional registration forms or questions pertaining to the Games, please call your local County representative or visit our web-site: cravencounty.recdesk.com and select Senior Games.

On behalf of the Steering committee, I extend best wishes for an enjoyable time at the 2018 Neuse River Senior Games. See you at the Games!

General Information

Participants must complete the official registration form (with signature, inclusive of medical information and physicians phone number. The liability waiver must be signed and the "fees" section of the registration form must be completed.

Confirmation: In early April, you will receive a letter confirming your events with times and places listed. If you believe the confirmation is incorrect, please call (252) 636-6606 to verify.

Rules: Rules for all events are available at www.ncseniorgames.org or by contacting the Events Director, Carlie Metts, 252-639-2906.

Athletic Awards: In Athletic Events, Gold, Silver, and Bronze medals will be awarded to the top three finishers in each age category, for males and females. Awards will be available to winners as soon as final results from each event are tallied. The Awards Table is located at West New Bern Recreation Center.

Silver Arts Awards: First, second & third place winners in Visual and Heritage Arts will be eligible for the NC Senior Games Finals. First & second place winners in the Literary sub-category will be eligible for the NC Senior Games Finals. However, North Carolina Senior Games Finals awards first, second, and third place in each sub-category of these arts.

State Finals Entry Forms: DO NOT MAIL BEFORE MAY 31, 2018! The State Finals entry form must be received in Raleigh at the NC Senior Games Office no later than 11:59 p.m. on August 1, 2018.

Neuse River Senior Games Liability Waiver

In consideration of being allowed to participate in any way in the 2018 Neuse River Senior Games (NRSNG) Athletic/Sports/Silver Arts program, and related events and activities, I the undersigned participant agree to:

- Indemnify, save and hold harmless, the Neuse River Senior Games or any of their agents or representatives for my health, safety, or any injury resulting from my participation in the games.
- Have prepared myself for the events which I have entered by practicing prior to the NRSNG. To the best of my knowledge, I have no physical restrictions which would prohibit my participation in the games. NRSNG has my permission to have a physician attend me if it is deemed necessary during my participation.
- Agree to release and hold harmless the NRSNG from any damage to/loss of my art entry. I certify that the art piece(s) I enter are my own work, were created after having reached the age of 50 and within the last two years, and are not manufactured in any sense of the word.
- I grant the NRSNG the free and unrestricted right to use my name and picture in any broadcast, telecast or other written or photographic account of the NRSNG without compensation.

“ I understand that it is my responsibility to check with my Local Senior Games Coordinator immediately following my Local Senior Games to determine if I am qualified for State Finals and to get a State Finals Entry Packet. My State Finals Entry Form must be received in the NC Senior Games office in Raleigh, NC by 11:59 p.m. on August 1, 2018. I understand that this deadline is strictly enforced in fairness to all and it is my responsibility to make sure I am registered.”

"A celebration of the creative expression of seniors in North Carolina", has been included as a major component of the traditional athletic competition of North Carolina Senior Games. Silver Arts encourages the continuing effort of older adults to create, explore, and display the Visual, Heritage, Literary, and Performing Arts and to increase public awareness of their talents and activities. Silver Arts unites the athlete and the artist in a program that recognizes the similarities of both endeavors: discipline, dedication, and pride in one's accomplishments.

At present, Silver Arts recognizes four broad categories, each with several sub-categories. First and second place winners in the Literary subcategory will be eligible for the NC Senior Games Finals. First, second and third place winners in the Visual and Heritage sub-categories will be eligible for the NC Senior Games Finals. North Carolina Senior Games Finals awards, first, second and third place in each sub-category of these arts.

One overall winner in the Performing Arts category will also be eligible for the North Carolina Senior Games Finals and able to compete for first, second and third place awards. The Neuse River Senior Games awards first, second, and third place in all the sub-categories.

Guidelines

- All persons entering Silver Arts must be 50 years of age or better and registered as a Neuse River Senior Games participant.
- Entries must be original works of the artist; must be a work created after the artist is age 50 or better and have been completed within two years of the Neuse River Senior Games registration deadline.
- Complete Silver Arts information is available at www.ncseniorgames.org

Visual Arts

- All art work, except sculptures, must be clearly framed and wired (no serrated hooks or strings), ready to be hung. Art work, except sculptures, not properly framed & wired will not be displayed.
- Art work, except sculptures, can be no larger than 36" x 42", including matting and frame. Sculptures can be no heavier than 15 pounds, and must be able to be displayed in a 3' x 3' area.
- Master studies are accepted.
- The art piece must be an original work, not print, and the artist's name and title of entry must appear on or be attached to the entry for identification.
- The artist must send a photograph of the entry with the State Finals Entry Form and Silver Arts Information Form when entering the State Finals.

Literary Arts

- Poems can be no longer than 40 lines.
- Short stories (fiction), essays (not autobiographical), articles, life experiences can be no longer than 8 pages double-spaced with a 1" margin on all sides. Entries must have a title page which includes the title of the work, sub-category, and artist name.
- A display quality copy of the entry and 3 additional copies, must be submitted with the registration form.

Performing Arts

- Performing entries are limited to 3 minutes of on-stage time.
- Performing entries may be one of the following: soloists with accompanists, small groups of 2-4 performers, or a large group of 5 or more performers.
- Performers must provide a CD or high quality cassette tape for performance with music tagged at the beginning of the tape/CD. Props are the responsibility of the performer.
- Performers wanting introductory material given prior to their performance are responsible for preparing it. Such material should be given to the Silver Arts chair for delivery to the Master of Ceremonies at the Revue Rehearsal.
- Voice presentations must be performed live (lip-synch is not permitted) and background music must be taped.
- Instructors and/or group members under age 50 will not be permitted to perform on stage with the group at local or state games.

Heritage Arts

- Heritage art entries must be original work and the work of the individual and not a group effort.

SILVER ARTS GENERAL INFORMATION

- Artists may not enter a piece of art work if the art piece, performance or literary art work has previously been entered in State Finals.
- LITERARY ENTRIES MUST BE MAILED WITH THE ENTRY FORM.
- Registration deadline for Silver Arts is the same as for all other components of the Neuse River Senior Games.
- Silver Artists may enter a maximum of one item in each Sub-category, for example: an artist may enter in each Sub-category for Heritage Arts.
- “Grouped sets” in Visual and Heritage Arts may have no more than 3 members. An example of a “grouped set” would be China Painting: plate, cup, saucer OR Jewelry: necklace, earrings.

The Neuse River Senior Games and the North Carolina Senior Games State Finals have the right to refuse or remove any or all entries that are deemed obnoxious or repulsive in character.
